

Which Book Shall I Send And To Whom Shall I Send It?

That is all I ask—just a postal card. Just the sending of a penny to add a sick friend. He or she is your friend—and a stranger to me. Yet, if you merely tell me his name, I will gladly do this.

I will arrange with a druggist near him so he may take six bottles of Dr. Shoop's Restorative. I will let him test it to prove what it can do. If it succeeds, he will send me $2.50. If it fails, I will pay the druggist myself.

CELEBRATE WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY WITH DOLLAR DINNER AT ST. JOSEPH.

FRANK P. YENAWINE, CHAIRMAN OF THE DOLLAR DINNER. JOHN H. RYAN, SECRETARY. WALTER R. REX, MASTER OF CEREMONIES.

Neither Mr. Folk nor Mr. Hawes Is Able to Attend Democratic Love Feast.

REED HAS FIELD TO HIMSELF.

Cherry Tree on the Table Is A Relief From Decorations.

REPUBLICAN SPECIAL.

St. Joseph, Mo., Feb. 22.—Democratic politicians from all parts of the State attended the "dollar dinner" given by a local committee at the Hotel Metropole to-night.

Between 300 and 400 occupied seats around the board, and many more would have attended had not the capacity of the banquet hall been limited.

It was the intention of the promoters of the "dollar dinner" to have all the avowed candidates for Governor present, that each might present his claims to the assembled party workers. Joseph W. Folk and Harry B. Hawes of St. Louis were unable to attend.

A telegram was received from Mr. Folk shortly before the banquet hall opened, saying he was unable to attend. He expressed great regret, and added that such gatherings were unquestionably beneficial to the party. Any man nominated would be satisfactory to him, he said, but thought the candidates should be men who would promise to support the ticket.

John H. Atwood of Leavenworth acted as toastmaster. It was not a banquet of the elaborate, formal kind, but one of those plain functions where Democratic simplicity reigns.

It was more of a conference of Democratic workers than an occasion of set speeches and oratorical efforts. The principal speech was delivered by David Overmeyer of Topeka. His subject was "Washington."

He said he and Atwood were like Saul of Tarsus—they had fought with boasts at Ephesus, and they were still ready for the fray in Kansas. He detailed the career of George Washington, the brave, poorly clad and trusting soldier, and likened him to Jackson, the heroic Democrat who won distinction in a conflict many years later.

Washington's declaration to accept a third term as Chief Executive of the nation over whose birth he presided had become the unwritten law of the land. No Democrat shall ever submit to any man having a third term to carry on the nation. He is the belief of the people in the principle enunciated by Washington.

CHERRY TREE ON TABLE.

The banquet hall was well decorated. That it was Washington's birthday was evidenced by the miniature cherry tree and the small hatch which had a conspicuous place at the head of the table.

The national colors predominated in the decorations. Mayor James A. Reed of Kansas City arrived last night and spent the greater part of the day in conference with delegations from Northwest Missouri towns.

A. B. Duncan of St. Joseph delivered the address of welcome. He welcomed the delegates to the banquet and the delegates of Buchanan County and St. Joseph, and said the Democracy of Northwest Missouri were Democrats after, as well as before, election, and no matter whom the convention nominated they were active in his support.

Mr. Duncan said it was desired to make this dinner an annual occasion. The management had prepared a list of signatures of men who wanted to become members of the "dollar dinner club," and it would be passed among the guests for their signature.

Mr. Duncan introduced John H. Atwood, toastmaster, who expressed gratitude at the honor conferred upon him, who had spent twenty years carrying the good news of Democracy to the political heathens across the Missouri River.

He paid a nice tribute to George Washington, whose birthday the dollar dinner celebrated. Telegrams were read from Judge James B. Gantt, Congressman C. F. Cochran, Senator Cockrell, Harry Hawes and Joseph W. Folk, regretting their inability to attend the dinner.

Speaker James H. Whitecotton made a short speech, in which he announced his candidacy for Governor. He said he expected the support of every Democrat in Missouri. This announcement was greeted with applause.

Mayor James A. Reed was one of the last speakers of the evening. He discussed the political situation in Missouri and the race for the gubernatorial nomination.

Among the prominent men in State politics who spent the day fixing fences and attending the dollar dinner to-night are: Sam B. Cook of Jefferson City, Secretary of State; O. P. Gentry of Smithville, private secretary to Governor Dockery; John A. Knott of Hannibal; Joe P. Rice of St. Louis; J. M. Sallee of Bethany; James A. Reed of Kansas City, candidate for Governor; H. R. Oglesby of Warrensburg, candidate for Railroad Commissioner; H. C. Timmonds of Lamar, candidate for Judge of the Kansas City Court of Appeals; J. H. Edwards of Jefferson City, State Senator; E. P. Fields of Brownsville, J. Winters of Milan, Deputy Beer Inspector and candidate for Railroad Commissioner; Representative Hubert S. Kronk of St. Louis, candidate for Attorney General; Virgil Conkling of Carrollton, member Democratic State Central Committee; Lieutenant Governor Thomas L. Ruby of Leola; W. C. Wilkinson of Excelsior Springs; J. W. Wilkinson of Smithville and James H. Whitecotton of Paris.

the meeting. The organization was launched with enthusiasm, and the various committees appointed to carry on the work entered upon their duties with a zeal that was more than gratifying to the hostesses. The committee on the table, which was in charge of the table, was in charge of the table.

The next meeting will be held about the time Archbishop Glennon receives the pallium, when several members of the hierarchy will be guests of the alumnae.

DOCTOR TAYLOR RESIGNS.

Will Become Pastor of Lafayette Park Baptist Church Next Month.

Word was received from Columbia, Mo., last night that the Reverend Doctor Sam Taylor has resigned the presidency of the Lafayette Park Baptist Church of this city. His contemplated action was announced in The Republic several days ago.

Doctor Taylor will remain in charge of the school until March 1, when he will move to St. Louis to assume his new position.

The Reverend Doctor J. R. Pentoff, who for several years has been dean of the Baptist Church of this city, will succeed Doctor Taylor.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES AT INSIDE INN.

Evangelical Bodies Will Hold Union Services During World's Fair.

The various churches of the city have been invited to hold religious services in the Inside Inn at the World's Fair during the Fair period. So far the Catholics are the only ones who have availed themselves of the opportunity, and the matter was also discussed at the ministerial meeting yesterday.

All seem to be in favor of holding some kind of religious service on the World's Fair site, and it is likely that the various evangelical bodies will unite on some plan for a union service. The matter was further considered at the meeting of the Evangelical Alliance, which meets in the Inside Inn to-morrow.

B'Nai B'rith Carnival May Net $8,000.

The various chapters of the B'Nai B'rith fair and carnival now in progress at the Masonic Hall, Ocean, were treated to a vaudeville performance yesterday afternoon in honor of Washington's Birthday.

President Sigmond Stimpfer said last night that the indications are that about $8,000 will be cleared by the fair. All of this will go into the building fund. The exact location for the new temple has not been decided upon, but it is thought that it will be in the neighborhood of Grand and Lafayette avenues.

Gave Martha Washington Tea.

The Young Ladies' Aid Society of the Third Baptist Church gave a Martha Washington tea at the home of the pastor, the Reverend W. J. Williamson, No. 501 Morgan street, last night. Several solos were sung by Mrs. Bertha Flansberg and Miss Laura Krenning. The male quartet of the Apollo Club also sang several songs. The entertainment was given by their respective homes at Spangled Banner.

To Study the Exposition.

The Woman's Sunshine Society of the King's Highway Cumberland Presbyterian Church meets this afternoon at 2 o'clock to study the World's Fair. The following officers will be read: "Woman's Fair in the Exposition," Mrs. W. J. Edwards; "Scripture and Social Decorative Features," Mrs. T. Cobble; "Foreign Buildings," Mrs. Charles J. Orr; "Hospital and Sanitary System," Miss Helen Barrie.

Will Lecture at Summer Assembly.

The Reverend W. M. Jones of the Hyde Park Congregational Church is mentioned among the lecturers of the Congregational Summer Assembly, which will meet at Frankfort, Mich., in August. The assembly last year met at Port Townsend, Wash., but has since purchased a site on Lake Crystal, near Frankfort.

Ladies' Bible Class Entertainment.

Members of the Ladies' Bible Class of the Pope Avenue Presbyterian Sunday School will give a music and literary entertainment at the church to-night. The proceeds are intended for the benefit of the church.

Horse Breaks Coachman's Jaw.

Alfred B. Collett, a coachman living at No. 283 Bell avenue, was kicked in the face last night by a horse he was driving. Collett was carried to the City Hospital with a fractured jaw.

WALTER B. STEVENS SAYS FIRST PRESIDENT WAS RESPONSIBLE FOR LOUISIANA PURCHASE.

HIS POLICY CARRIED OUT.

Secretary of World's Fair Describes Scope of the Universal Exposition at St. Louis.

St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 22.—The St. Louis Republican League Club celebrated Washington's Birthday to-night with a banquet, at which more than 300 guests were present.

The principal address was delivered by Walter B. Stevens, Secretary of the World's Fair at St. Louis. Other speakers were President Platt, General Ellis and Frank Bowman.

Mr. Stevens discussed the World's Fair, its origin, scope and importance as a "timekeeper of civilization." In a manner which kept his auditors interested for more than an hour, Mr. Stevens was aroused in the audience.

In the first place, the speaker took the position that as much to George Washington as to anyone else, was due the credit for the Louisiana Purchase, which was, he said, only a continuance of the policy of the "father of his country" in extending the border of the United States westward.

From the origin of the enterprise, he traced the history of the purchase of the Louisiana Purchase, which was, he said, only a continuance of the policy of the "father of his country" in extending the border of the United States westward.

More nations and more States will be represented, more exhibits will be there, more buildings will be erected and more money spent.
